Vocab Puzzles Instructions

Crosswords

- Answers are translations of the word in the clue. The answers should be filled in either across or down, starting at the number of the clue.
- Use intersecting words to help determine letters that may be in the answer.
- Some words may have several different translations, try different ones if the word doesn't fit.
- Use the solutions if necessary, the goal is to get practice at translating words, aiding you in language learning.
- Clues that have 4 words to choose from give a list of possible words to choose from, these are especially useful for beginners but also give excellent practice for more experienced learners.
- Crosswords are available in either 21 x 13 (1 per page) or 10 x 10 (2 per page).
- Not all puzzle types are available for each language / difficulty combination.

Jumbledwords

- The clue is a word from the language you are learning, jumbled up randomly. The unscrambled word should be written into the grid.
- The highlighted letters should spell out a word vertically, of which a clue is given for.
- There is a hints page, which gives translations for each word. Use these if you are stuck but don't want to go straight to the answer.
- The key for Jumbledwords is to get practice with a variety of words in the language you are learning.
- Not all puzzle types are available for each language / difficulty combination.

Snakes

- Answers are translations of the word in the clue. The answers should be filled in starting at the number of the clue and going clockwise.
- The number in brackets in the clue is how many letters the answer has. Answers overlap with the next word on the grid.
- Some words may have several different translations, try different ones if the word doesn't fit.
- Use the solutions if necessary, the goal is to get practice at translating words, aiding you in language learning.
- Clues that have 4 words to choose from give a list of possible words to choose from, these are especially useful for beginners but also give excellent practice for more experienced learners.
- Snakes are available in 1 per page or 2 per page.
- Not all puzzle types are available for each language / difficulty combination.

VOCAB PUZZLES